Course Reviews

Nicole P, Eltham

I've been very impressed with the speed of marking my assignments, and was very happy with the service received from the receptionist when I had a question regarding my course!

D Maddocks, Newcastle

I was a little worried about starting an online course because I felt that I wouldn't feel as motivated to do the course from home. But I have found the portal very easy to use and the course content is great. I am currently looking at the other courses from Conwal to possibly start once I have finished this course.
